[1] note on qualification program

The entire range of courses for licensing test preparation offered by FIA is shown here. To recieve visa approval, it is possible and can be advantageous to already start learning German in your home country.

The duration of the individual courses may vary.

[2] note on visa types

The sequence of visa types presented here shows only one possibility. What kind of visa applies to you individually is, in any case, in cooperation with the foreigners authority decided by the embassy responsible for you.
